(Feat. Lulu Hughes)
So much pain
Just to gain
A little piece of sunshine
Will drive us all insane
And we hurt
Each other and ourselves
Will we ever learn?
We should know
That together we will stand
And divided we'll fall
What we need is to give some love

Give me some love love
That's why we're here for
Without some love love
What are we good for?
Give me some love love
That's why we're here for
Without some love love
What are we good for?

We need to believe
In a better way of living
And start all over again
Put an end to the fighting and the hurting
And live in a brotherhood of men
Give some joy (joy) to every living creature
And help us be free again understand (understand)
All we have to do

Give me some love love
That's why we're here for
Without some love love
What are we good for?
Give me some love love
That's why we're here for
Without some love love
What are we good for?

Give some love
Give some love

Gimme love

Give some love

Give some love

Gimme love

Give Some Love
