I see the lights,
I see the road
I see everything in the highway code
I've been whipped and I've been spun cown
there ain't no religion here
And I'm homeward bound Wherever you go,
wherever you are
I am crossing over
to the other side
And now I am waiting for an answer,
some kind of sign
Looking for a love
to be my guide
I am crossing over
to the other side
Friendships come
and lifetimes go
In their passing to the bigger show
The river runs,
the tides will turn
If there's a hell,
well I've yet to learn Wherever you go,
wherever you are
I am crossing over
to the other side
And now I am waiting for an answer,
some kind of sign
Looking for a love
to be my guide
I am crossing over
to the other side
To dream the dream that's over before it's gone
To hold your lover here
while your heart beats so strong Baby when I love you when everything is gone

When I'm kissing heaven
this love is never wrong
Solo
I hear the singing,
I hear the shout
The talk of meaning
for those in doubt But amid all the wailing and the wringing hands
Everybody thinks
does anyone understand?
Wherever you go,
to the other side
And now I am waiting for an answer,
some kind of sign
I am crossing over
to the other side
And now I am waiting for an answer,
some kind of sign
Cos I am crossing over
to the other side
