Is she waiting now?
Do you think she really really cares?
Is she standing and looking with her hope?
Her fingers through her hair

Looking at the future you and me, baby
Life lately don't seem like wonderland
Nothing here nothing coming in
Money goes like a wino's gin
Slips through my hands

And I know it ain't easy
I get drunk like a fool
There's a promise I made you, darling now
Just one golden rule

Hold on to this love
'Cause I don't want to lose you
Hold on to this love
'Cause I don't want to lose you

When the lights go down
Do you think she really really cares?
As she's lying there with her arms around you
A strange affair

Looking at the lights on Lake shore Drive
In the windy city now, will our love stay alive?
Last night I held you in my arms
You looked and said, "Baby, we will survive"

And I know it ain't easy
'Cause life gets so cruel
And there's a promise I made you, darling now
Just one golden rule

Hold on to this love
'Cause I don't want to lose you
Hold on to this love
'Cause I don't want to lose you

Hold on to this love

'Cause I don't want to lose you
Hold on to this love
'Cause I don't want to lose you

And I know it ain't easy
I get drunk like a fool
There's a promise I made you, darling now
Just one golden rule

Where you gonna go, who you gonna run to?
Who you gonna see tonight, babe?
What you gonna wear, who you gonna know?
Who you gonna see tonight my, baby?

From the back of a one dollar down
Did you ever think I wouldn't be around?
This ain't a stand off ain't no fight
But where you gonna be sleeping tonight?

Hold on to this love
'Cause I don't want to lose you
Hold on to this love
'Cause I don't want to lose you

Hold on to this love
'Cause I don't want to lose you
Hold on to this love
'Cause I don't want to lose you
