Hey yeah yeah

Give up that booze
and take out the trash give up the night life and stop smoking that hash give up the good sex it's a heart attack
surrender life
wrap it up in a sack

All dressed up in the kings new clothes climbing up the monkey's nose standing out like a stiff on parade you're overworked and underpaid

Jello man,
jello man
got you on the run Jello man,
jello man
blocking out the sun
Jello man,
jello man
beating on his drum Jello man,
jello man
got you on the run yeah

Stop all the traffic put this time on hold stop all the press
cos it's been bought and sold stop the revolution there's nothing left to fight will the last man standing turn out the light

Standing out with the freaks in the cold sucking down on a Virginia gold the cabarets all dressed for the kill they'll stiff you now and give you the bill

Jello man,
jello man
got you on the run Jello man,
jello man
blocking out the sun
Jello man,
jello man
beating on his drum
Jello man,
jello man

Solo

Jello man,
jello man
Jello man,
jello man
blocking out the sun
Jello man,
jello man
beating on his drum
Jello man,
jello man
