Guess it's just the same old story
Fool, I didn't have a chance
She took me like a house that's burning
Never gave a second glance

Eat 'em up, let 'em go and you never, let your feelings show
She ain't here and you're asking why
Life's a bitch and then you die
Come on lover just let go, is there something I should know

Was it just one of those nights
Something you don't remember, yeah
Just one of those crazy nights
Something I don't remember

Sitting at the bar drinking beer
Happy hour's over and love's cost me dear
The piano player sits at his stool
He's playing 'Feelings', ain't life cruel

Uptown, downtown life's a river
And I wish I could drown
I could still hear those loving sighs
A lesson learnt love's just a lie

I know I made a big mistake
With love there's no even break
There's a price you have to pay
I got the bill when I heard you say

(Was it)
Just one of those nights
(Baby)
Something I don't remember
Just one of those crazy nights
Something you don't remember

Was it just one of those nights, baby
Something I don't remember
Just one of those crazy nights

Something I don't remember

(Was it)

Just one of those nights

(Baby)

Something I don't remember

Just one of those crazy nights

Something you don't remember
