One more time said the lady Jane walk on in the fire chinese whispers ringing now step into the mire I've been strung out to dry blowing in the gale my names been left hanging, hanging on your nail all the misfits are flying like a kite all of my friends have come to see the fight whoa oh oh, the spark that is us this love has never gone away

I hold a moment every single day

I can hear the Quireboys singing and it's falling on my ears I can hear the trumpets playing running down the years don't ask me how the world looks how it looks tonight I'm gonna be leaving babe outta here and outta sight I've been laying down coming off the rails I've been chasing shadows playing Happy trails

I hold a moment every single day

Solo

I hold a moment every single day

I hold a moment every single day
