I take the vibes from the sun and it's making me see
The dam is broken and I am free
The rocks are speakin', the bee has the key
Yellow honey is all that I can see

I take the vibes from the sun and it's making me see
The dam is broken and I am free
The rocks are speakin', the bee has the key
Yellow honey is all that I can see

I take the vibes from the sun and it's making me see
The dam is broken and I am free
The rocks are speakin', the bee has the key
Yellow honey is all that I can see
Is all that I can see
Is all that I can see
Is all that I can see
Is all that I can see
Is all that I can see

I take the vibes from the sun and it's making me see
The dam is broken and I am free
The rocks are speakin', the bee has the key
Yellow honey is all that I can see

I take the vibes from the sun and it's making me see
The dam is broken and I am free
The rocks are speakin', the bee has the key
The bee has the key
The bee has the key
The bee has the key
The bee has the key
The bee has the key
The bee has the key

Walking low, walking tall
Walking narrow through the hall
Turn around, hear the sound
'Cuz the meeting's on the ground

Walking low, walking tall

Walking narrow through the hall
Turn around, hear the sound
'Cuz the meeting's on the ground

Walking low, walking low
Walking tall, walking tall
Walking narrow through the hall

I take the vibes from the sun and it's making me see
The dam is broken and I am free
The rocks are speakin', the bee has the key
Yellow honey is all that I can see

I take the vibes from the sun and it's making me see
The dam is broken and I am free
The rocks are speakin', the bee has the key
Yellow honey is all that I can see

I take the vibes from the sun and it's making me see
The dam is broken and I am free
The rocks are speakin', the bee has the key
Yellow honey is all that I can see
I take the vibes from the sun and it's making me see
Yellow honey is all that I can see
I take the vibes from the sun and it's making me see
Yellow honey is all that I can see
I take the vibes from the sun, is all that I can see
Yellow honey is all that I can see
I take the vibes from the sun, is all that I can see
Yellow honey is all that I can see

All the dreams and all the streams
Strange it all seems
All the dreams and all the streams
Strange it all seems

You've gotta believe in the merry-go-round
Cuz the world is turning over and it's got me upside
down
All the dreams and all the streams
Strange it all seems
All the dreams and all the streams
Strange it all seems
You've gotta believe in the merry-go-round
Cuz the world is turning over and it's got me upside
down
All the dreams and all the streams
Strange it all seems
All the dreams and all the streams
Strange it all seems
