Here's to now

Here's to now

Actually, I was thinking was thinking

Said everything out loud

Cause apricot seeds got arsenic

That we don't worry about

Sittin on your doorstep

Waiting for you to come home or come out

Well, apple seeds have cyanide

That we don't care about

So here's to now

Here's to now

Buildings built sturdy rose up in every town

As the bees get aged and the bellies get to sag

Well the people fall right out

Pride is really falling

I'm proud that I'm not proud

And as the people get aged and the bellies get sagged

Well their instincts all fall out

Here's to now

Here's to now

Here's to now

Here's to now

The bus boy's younger brother

When he drinks he talks too much

He seemed normal to me

But at quarter to three

Well I could see he was a little bit touched

Actually, I was thinking

Said everything out loud
'Cause apricot seeds carry arsenic
That we don't care about

Here's to now
Here's to now

Actually, I was thinking
Said everything out loud
Well actually I was thinking
So here's to now
Here's to now
