One Way True Love
Only Lonely

English translation

I just smirk and nod in these heart-to-heart conversations Don't you think it's weird that I'm the one who gives advice
Despite having absolutely zero love life as of now I can only watch from afar the one that I admire 'Cause all those love stories you read in fashion mags won't ever work out My gaze at him is overlapped by his own who's looking at someone else
I can only hope that he'd someday realize both of us are simply out-of-luck Even if we finally let our feelings out we both know all too well what's coming so it's hard One-way true loveThe city sleeps at night alone I pray to the skies

"I wish for the two of us having the same unrequited feelings at each other" Scratch that I got a better one, "Please have your eyes on only me"
"I'd like to open my heart more and approach him""Cause all those love stories you read in fashion mags are often too straightforward
For now I'll just wait and see if he finally turns his gaze
at me
Or picturing another scenario, somewhere round the corner we might bump into each other
And fall in love after that I'm sure One-way true love'Cause all those love stories you read in fashion mags are often too straightforward
For now I'll just wait and see if he finally turns his gaze
at me
Or picturing another scenario,
somewhere round the corner we might bump into each
other
And fall in love after that I'm sure
One-way true love
Only lonely
