English translation

Everyone has a dream. One by one,
they are shining brightly.
Don't you have one too? Giving up is way too easy, right? Let's fight back!
Even things we can't do today,
we might be able to tomorrow! We definitely have that strength.
We won't worry about bad impressions.
If it's something we love,
even if it feels like we'll cry in pain, we can try our best!
If all the dreams in the world come true, wouldn't it be so wonderful?

If we pursue it with all our strength,
such spirit will let us soar!
Adults who have forgotten this heart pounding
excitement are so boring!
If it were me, while I improve, I wouldn't forget the wings of my prayers.
This fiery courage is sleeping.
Let's try to wake it up! My heart holds the path to the newborn future.
Make it huge! Make it dazzling! This life sparkles with such hopes.
For these feelings that can't stop,
we can fly anywhere! Everyone has a dream.
One by one, they are shining brightly. Don't you have one too?
Make it huge! Make it dazzling! This life sparkles with
such hopes.
For these feelings that can't stop, we can fly anywhere!
