Disdain

Oh love, what did you do to my heart?
Cause it stains
And I would love to let it go

Oh you, you make it look so sweet
It hurts
And I am not the same

Oh I can't escape anymore
I have to let it go
Oh I can't do this anymore
Just have to let you go

I wanna break free
Walk under a blue sky
Oh give me what I need
Cause I'll go sooner or later

Oh love, look at my bleeding heart
Cause it stains
And we're not the same

~Never fall out of line
Oh you won't let it lie
Cause there's a war going on in your head
And it's winning so far
Please don't leave me alone
I know we're not the same, we're not the same
Disdain, Disdain
