Oh it's safe to say I knew it
Yeah I knew it all along
Asking the same questions
Singing the same songs

I've been gone for a while
Been traveling alone
Searching for a new life
when I already have my own

So walk back home on every road
On every road we cross alone
We're thinking of those we left back home
So follow the lines and ill be your guide
Cause were the lucky ones on every road

Yeah it's safe to say I knew
That all the selfish things I do
Would eventually come creeping back around
Oh way back when you called me young
Said we're innocent and dumb
I knew that you'd come creeping back around again

So walk back home on every road
On every road we cross alone
We're thinking of those we left back home
So follow the lines and ill be your guide
Cause were the lucky ones on every road

On every road we cross alone
We're thinking of those we left back home
So follow the lines and ill be your guide
Cause were the lucky ones on every road

(So lucky baby!)

On every road we cross alone
We're thinking of those we left back home
So follow the lines and ill be your guide
Cause were the lucky ones on every road
