[Rzarector (Blue Raspberry)]

Yo hold up stop stop

What's goin on, what's goin on

Yo what's goin on, what's goin on I'm just holdin on

What's goin on, what's goin on

(What's goin on what's goin on)

What's goin on I'm just holdin on

What's goin on, what's goin on

(What's goin on what's goin on)

What's goin on I'm just holdin on

[Rzarector]

Yo

If you could soar the sky like a bird

Would you be disturbed to see brothers on the curb smokin herb

And cops from the third precinct rush in

Like a herd

Chargin up the league with possession

Freeze em and arrest em

Strip search em then undress em

Make the youngsters come and then sign a confession

Or would you watch the cop in the chopper

With the high powered binocular cameras

Attached the bottom of his aircraft

Takin photographs of your lab

Pointin a 50 millimeter 500 shot magazine full clip gat at your back

Hoverin the projects, spotlight shinin bright

On movin targets

Infrared light at night on dark objects

Harassin citizens who hasn't been charged yet

Would you order a flock of pelicans to jam their propellers

On top see forfeit the death system failure

Take these devils off, I witness Tom broke off

Mentally fry his brain and blow the smoke off

Killa Bee, presidential suite, Bill and Hillary

Bow and kiss my feet
Auxillary security retreat
Heavy artillery sun heat
Meet the agony defeats the cavalry
Six-pack battery back, anti-gravity raps
Snaps your head inside the bear trap
You can't adapt to the habitat
The biggest jigsaw puzzle be the world map Niggas think that they own things and man sit high upon thrones
When you die tell me what the fuck you own
When your skin flesh and bones find a permanent home
As food for worms or fossils trapped in stone

[Rzarector (Blue Raspberry)]
What's goin on (What's goin on)
I'm just holdin on (What's goin on)
What's goin on (What's goin on)
I'm just holdin...

[Gatekeeper]
Airborne planes with ultra rays
Aerosol sprays leavin tracemarks, you're picked up on radar
Trackin your moments, political opponents
Everything you own now he owns it
From the genesis exact off the tip Undergoin metamorphosis through computers in your offices
A crystal construct a nuclear missile
Every fifth school we produce more pistols
Documented details, shocked at retails
Shipped to the ghetto for resale Peep the calamitist dreams and destroy the thermometers
Droppin like niggas unemployed

[Gatekeeper (Blue Raspberry)]
What's goin on, what's goin on (What's goin on)
Just holdin on, just holdin on (What's goin on)
What's goin on, what's goin on (What's goin on)
What's goin on, just holdin on (What's goin on)

[Grym Reaper]
Yo triple 6 is established
The average savage cabbage is tryin to live lavish
Off of the credit card balances
The magnetic strips that stick onto plastic
New World Order system of society that's cast us
Masses is mastered and broadcasters speak

The media breach and your optic forefathers
Topics is wild as fiction
To lessen the friction my children beware the pale rider
Your life is slipped into a microchip
I warned you with all of the mics that I grip
Cash days fade away devils roll hard
Trappin souls inside of Visa gold cards

[9th Prince]

Yo this is cerebal warfare
Nuclear golden sphere attacks the hemisphere
Leaves the human fearness of the pit of urban tears
Dedicate my life to Allah, each bar's a star
Far from Mars, for vengeance my opponents die hard Panasonic electronic thoughts cut short your life support
Half deceased enemies are buried alive at the Wu mount enterprise
Raisin cane remain pain in the brain
Stain the mindframe
Slay like heroin bein shot in the veins
9th Prince the principle, I was born invincible
Slew with a tribute to my attribute
Weak lyricists in my cipher stay mute
My wisdom is sword justice
Chop off the head of those who can't be trusted
I'm signin off as I let my knowledge be born
Sharp like a thorn
Bloods callin themselves Gods, yo What's goin on

[Blue Raspberry]

What's goooooiiiiinnnnn oooooonnnnnn
What's goin on, what's goin on (8x)
