I don't have to look around I feel your eyes burning holes in my head.
One day I'll be out of here maybe then you'll listen to what I said.

You know I don't do this for my ego.
So why do I get all this bullshit?

Put yourself in my shoes.
Maybe you won't get so much abuse.
But you're always ragging me.
Seems nothing is good enough for you.
You know I don't do this for my ego.
So why don't you own up and tell the truth?
If I should only do this for my ego.
I'm out of here and that's the end of you.
