I'm the one who will hold your hand tonight, all night
I can see in your eyes that there's something you try to hide

I feel your fear come close to me
I know it's hard, you're safe inside these arms

I am here when you're lonely,
on the phone and on the other side of the world
You can call me if you want me

I'm the one who can make your smile all of your life
You're the one who can make me feel so right, so right
I feel your fear come close to me
I know it's hard, you'll stay inside these arms

I am here when you're lonely,
on the phone and on the other side of the world
You can call me if you want me
I am here, I will catch you if you fall
Don't you fear my fear
I will never let you go

Sometimes I think you're crazy
I'm just a guy who messes things up
But you're still my lady
I will never let you go

Sometimes I think you're crazy
I'm just a guy who messes things up
But you're still my lady

I am here when you're lonely,
on the phone and on the other side of the world
You can call me if you want me
I am here, I will catch you if you fall
Don't you fear my dear
I will never let you go
