Winter taking days
Nights filled with longer hours
Hey
Nights filled with longer hours (hey)
Nights filled with longer hours (hey)

Winter solstice
Passing by us
Temperatures dropping
Try us
With colder feelings

Black ice and hidden lust
White sheets of snow concealing
Gloves on hands
With warmer pasts
And plastic sleds cracking
The newly chapped
Huddling against the wall
Of shrinking college trends
With the days living faster now
We cast our make pretends
Extra heat demands
A rising constant power
Darkness taking days

Nights filled with longer hours
Hey
Hey
Nights filled with longer hours (hey)
Nights filled with longer hours (hey)

Got a jagged gorgeous winter from a summers thread
All the lies you told about me they were totally, Totally,
totally true
Thinking through the noise you get back to bed
With your tinker tinker toys
You gotta think it, think it, think it, thinking it Through.

Got a jagged gorgeous winter from a summers thread
All the lies you told about me they were totally, Totally,

totally true
Thinking through the noise you get back to bed
With your tinker tinker toys
You gotta think it, think it, think it, thinking it Through.

Got a jagged gorgeous winter from a summers thread
All the lies you told about me they were totally, Totally,
totally true
Thinking through the noise you get back to bed
With your tinker tinker toys
You gotta think it, think it, think it, thinking it Through.

Drag it out Drag it out Drag it
Drag it out Drag it out Drag it
Drag it out Drag it Out Drag it
Drag it out
