There's rain outside
I've nowhere to hide
But still I hide from You
The pain is so deep
But I cannot keep
My fears hidden from You
Ohh, it's rainin' in my heart
Ohh, it's rainin' in my heart
My flesh is weak
I cannot speak
But I fight to find a way
I feel alone
Yet still I know
That You will always stay
There's rain outside
You're by my side
I've nothing left to fear
I thought You'd gone
But all along
You were waiting here
Ohh, it's Another Stormy Night
