How Many Times have you gone below?
Hangin' around those seats and back rows
Where nobody's eyes can see what you know
Who's under the coat your wondering?
So many times I've seen my shadow
Hovering over that sweetness I know
When all of a sudden I've needs from below
Who's there for me now, I'm hungering

Calling out for Love (x2)

Take that Snowflake, you can't do it right
I know what I want and I'm not too proud to shout it
Hit that road if you can't put it right
I know what I want, I want off this roundabout (x2)

How many of our dark secrets are told
Under the cover of sheets and bedrolls
Where all of our fantasies can unfold
While the rest of the world's slumbering
Down on my bended knees and elbows
Chewing over that sweetness I know
When all of a sudden I've needs from below
Somewhere in the dark I'm mumbling

Calling out for Love (x2)

Take that Snowflake, you can't do it right
I know what I want and I'm not too proud to shout it
Hit that road if you can't put it right
I know what I want, I want off this roundabout (x2)

Yeah!!
