Some may says it's a mystery

Some may say it's a science

But I believe that somewhere between desire and the senses

The truth may lie

I'll give you love unconditional

We have love unconditional

I won't try explainin' the effect you have on me

Admit it girl - the truth is plain to see

I gotta have your decision - so don't give me the party line

Face the facts - It's make your mind up time

So give you heart permission

For gettin' here with me

Baby remember right now

If you just surrender

Embrace your destiny

CHORUS

I'll give you love unconditional

It's a heart and sould reunion

That's the way it's meant to be

We have love unconditional

It's a two-way love communion

So set your spirit free

What's the point in pretending - I don't want nobody else

I can't lie - I can't fool myself

No time for hesitation - I gotta make you hear somehow

The chance is here - I know the time is now

So give your heart permission

For gettin' here with me

If you just surrender

Embrace your destiny

Some may say it's a mystery

Some may says it's a science

But I believe that somewhere between desire and the
senses

The truth may lie

CHORUS

Every night, every minute of the day

Every thought and everything you say

Every time you walk away I'm with you
