Come here beside me

A little closer

Come here beside me

A little closer yeah

I lay here by your side

the moon and stars are out tonight

And in the distance music starts to play

You wake up from ur sleep

I take your hand to the hope to be

And in the chance the sound takes you away

Come here beside me

A little closer

dont run away from the passion that u know

Come here beside me

A little closer yeah

Feel it with me

I lay here by your side

the moon and stars are out tonight

And in the distance music starts to play

You wake up from ur sleep

I take your hand to the hope to be

And in the chance the sound take you away

Come here beside me

A little closer

dont run away from the passion that u know

Come here beside me

A little closer yeah

Feel it with me

I lay here by your side

The moon and stars are out tonight

And in the distance music starts to play

You wake up from your sleep

I take your hand to the hope to be

And in the chance the sound take u away

Come here beside me

A little closer

Dont run away from the passion that you know

Come here beside me

A little closer yeah

Feel it with me
