I am disillusion with love.
I wonder why they invented it.
If i'd have been in charge of all that,
you can bet that i, i would have prevented it.
Eyes that grieved don't ever seem to be the same again, just look at me.
this sort of tears seem to just fall down.
Who invented crying, i hope his dying.

ref:

And i always thought that you would take care of me.
(aaaah)
Then i found out that you're just scared of me.

Hearts are made of such fragile stuff,
it seems that they are just not tough enough.
If i had been in charge of our design,
well you can bet that i,
i would have made mine double tough.
Double tough, yeah! yeah, yeah, yeah! double tough

oooh yaaaah yeah, double tough

ref:

And i always thought that you would take care of me.
(aaaah)
Then i found out that you're just scared of me.

They say that love will set you free.
Well look at me, in penitentiary.
You can let your heart set sail.
But don't be fooled by a fairytail.

I am disillusion with love, love, love.
