Standing back again from me,
How you've led me on
Judging by the things you've said
Theres gotta be something wrong
What you telling me that for
When you don't mean it
What you telling me that for
I don't believe it
You're promises have never been
Anything you make them seem
So what you gonna promise me this time
You're telling lies, so plain to see
You're trying to make a fool of me
So what you gonna promise me this time
I want to know
Seems like I've been playing your game
And how you think you've won
But when you count on what you've gained
You're the lonely one
You're promises have never been
Anything you make them seem
So what you gonna promise me this time
You're telling lies, so plain to see
You're trying to make a fool of me
So what you gonna promise me this time
I want to know
Promises
Promises
Promises
What you telling me that for
When you don't mean it
What you telling me that for
I don't believe it
You're promises have never been
Anything you make them seem
So what you gonna promise me this time
You're telling lies, so plain to see
You're trying to make a fool of me
So what you gonna promise me this time
I want to know
