Visit "Fired" on MotoLyrics.com

Feel the waking up, feel the breaking loose
Start the engine turning, feel the inside burning, fired
Push it to the red line, push it to the edge
And it starts to unwind, latched on sucker

Holds you steady as it starts to shudder
Tell me when it fucking hurts, crash it through the base line
Leave it in the dust as you begin the climb
All out crusher shedding the skin as it fuels the within

Tell me when it fucking hurts, hurts
It fucking hurts, half feeling alive
Half feeling alone, half feeling the pressure
Half feeling the anger, fired

Pushed it to the red line, pushed it to the edge
To begin the unwind, saw toothed sucker
Ripped the within so the out could begin
Told you it would fucking hurt, reach back
