Just in time to steal what's mine
Uprooting again
Cold and blind, can't feel what's mine
Unpleasant surprise

Who was I to think that I'd not be here again?
Days unwind as time divides
And sweeps them all away
Rust and time are finally catching up

Stay away
(Push, push)
(I throw another useless moment away)
Stay away
(Push, push)
(I throw another useless moment away)
(To reach me)
(To reach me)

To leave this place behind me
To lead myself away
To leave the guilt behind me
To clear the path it made

To leave this place behind me
To lead myself away
To leave the guilt behind me
To clear the path it made

Stay away
(Push, push)
(I throw another useless moment away)
Stay away
(Push, push)
(I throw another useless moment away)
(To reach me)
(To reach me)
