Sun, Sun is shining thru so bright like me and you forever in our dream

Sun, forever in our heart
we're never be apart this love aint what it seems

The clouds all have gon, now that you are by my side I saw right into your eyes, looking for the same big sky when I'm in your arms, your love takes me away overflown to my soul, ev'ry minute of my day

The pain has dissapeared, when you finally realize I can see your glowing face as I turned to feel your smile
These moments go to fast, will our memories survive Can this deep love ever last, like the sunlight in our lifes
