Days seem longer
Than they've ever been
And my heart wonders
If there will be an end or not

Will I ever be important part?
'Cause the days seem darker
Than they've ever been, no

When will we know
That our hearts elope in slow mo?

When will we wake up?
When will we wake up?
When will we wake?
When will we wake?

Been weakling for your love
Been weakling for your love
Been weakling for your love
As days seem longer
Than they've ever been, oh no

When will we know
That our hearts elope in slow mo?

When will we wake up?
When will we wake up?
When will we wake?
When will we wake up?

When will we wake up?
When will we wake up?
When will we wake up?
When will we wake up?
