Im cleaning out my display case
And self reformed more than half way Excluding all the specifics Reacting is to scientific
But the more you breathe open minded air Youll be remind of why you're here
All the time you were looking Until you were born now your stuck here

Dialing in my prescription Relying on old definition
When all preconceptions are lifted Growing is more for the gifted its never a word till its spoken here many interpret its still unclear this cant be hard as choosing it we're all better off than accusing
