the silent years of helpless crying the bridge of hate travels in my mind beyond all the doors of gruesome hunger I hear the threnodes, I behold eye of the greyhound

the eye of the greyhound

the dreaming moon so bloodlike the feeding of the never ending night end of time the eye of my mind so much pain and so much losts helpless words cries in the air

the eyes inside of me please take them away, away
