rain of death falls down.
potuted by this so called technology. murdering to succeed. not seeing the price that has been paid.
in the name, in the name of progression industrial insanity forces us to follow we die they prosper only in death can we stop supporting them only in death can they not have their way with using the name of progression if it was real progression greed would not dictate our souls
if it was real progression we'd give back what we stole if it was real progression we'd burn these lies all down in the name of progression.
