

Unbroken "Remain"

Visit "Remain" on MotoLyrics.com

I do not know why why so many have fallen, why can't they remain to see the lives they have changed,
I know this is not the same and I know I won't fall, I don't understand why they're gone, so many have turned away, promises not returned, regrets of their pasts, I know their gone, engraved in my soul are my morals forever, I look to myself to see what's right, we face this ourselves alone I'll destroy rumors I will destroy these lies, the remaining thoughts of value will not be brushed away, we will endure the choices that face us and we will remain, we will remain, we will remain, we will remain
