"The Poisoning"

Swimming...quickly in your sea of standards
Drowning nerver truly living at all

Beauty surrounds you
But you gun for paradise none the less
With your blinders on so clueless to it all in the end, can you truly
Say that you lived...or not?

Poisoned the mind...by years of all the lies materialistic...
Society of the blind

The poisoning...it is sickening all the lies!

Your heart gives...from stress...
And you fall...you worked your life to death!

Tragic you see...your death and its irony buried,
blind...in the planet
That you declined myths and lies...the poisoning of our minds
Brainwashed and I'm not fucking buying it!
