Always changing your mind
Waisting my time, don't bother
But everytime that you call
I begin to fall again
It's like I'm losing control
Of my body and soul, when you are around

I gotta break away before it gets too late
Baby make your mind up, cuz I'm not gonna wait

I'm taking it out of my hands
I'm giving it up: I'm setting you free
Now I'm taking a chance
Cuz what will be is meant to be
What's the point in fighting for love?
If it doesn't come easily
Now it's out of my hands

I was ready to jump
Right into the fire, with you
But you didn't believe
Didn't share your dreams with me
But you gave me enough
Just in case of you were lonley

I won't be wrapped around your finger anymore
And though it's killing me I'm walking out the door

I'm taking it out of my hands
I'm giving it up: I'm setting you free
Now I'm taking a chance
Cuz what will be is meant to be
What's the point in fighting for love?
If it doesn't come easily
Now it's out of my hands

I pray that you're missing me like I'm missing you
Tell me that you feel the same way too
Til then...
