You think the world should see things your way
Love, I know you, you think good fortune's here to stay Love, I know you shine in everything you tried before Your smile can open any door

Chorus:

But on those days when nobody wants to know you
And all your smiles keep falling on stoney ground Don't stop believing, don't stop believing, don't stop believing, you'll get by Bad days, bad days will hurry by

You never chase your dreams, they find you Love I know you, if you need love, it finds you too Love although you sail alone and free, I'll follow in your wake
And pray one day my heart you'll take chorus repeats out
