When you're having those days when you're feeling deserted
And everyone leaves you on hold When none of your friends seem to care what you're doin'
And you're feeling old, out in the cold When the only thing left of romance is a memory, and your memory's not strong Whenever your clouds lose their silvery lining I'll keep you warm, out of the storm

Chorus:

You don't need no psychiatry, come on baby you can talk to me
Cuddle up on the couch with me, we can talk all night
for free
You don't need to be hypnotised, lay down here and look me in my eyes
Cuddle up on the couch with me, we can talk all night
for free

Won't you talk to me, come on and talk to me, oh talk to me

When you're feelin' the blues and there's no one to lean on
When nobody makes you belong
You need to be safe in the arms of a someone Who'll make you strong, it won't take long If you're lookin' for someone that you can believe in, let that someone be me
Can't think of a thing that some lovin' can't handle Let's make a start, give me your heart

Talk to me, oh won't you talk to me, oh, keep on talking to me

You gotta, you gotta talk to me (repeats out)
