Oh, the trouble with the truth
Is it's always the same 'ol thing
So hard to forget, so impossible for me to change
Every time I try to fight it
I know I'll be left to blame
Oh, the trouble with the truth
Is it's always the same 'ol thing
And the trouble with the truth
Is it's just what I need to hear
Ringing so right, deep down inside my ear
And it's everything I want
And it's everything I fear
Oh, the trouble with the truth
Is it's just what I need to hear
It has ruined the taste of the sweetest lies
Burned through my best alibis
Every sin that I deny
Keeps hanging 'round my door
Oh, the trouble with the truth
Is it always begs for more
That's the trouble, trouble with the truth

That's the trouble, trouble with the truth

And the trouble with the truth

Is it just won't let me rest

I run and hide but there's always another test

And I know that it won't let me be

'Til I've given it my best

The trouble with the truth

Is it just won't let me rest

That's the trouble, trouble with the truth

That's the trouble, trouble with the truth

That's the trouble, trouble with the truth

That's the trouble, trouble with the truth
