Someone please turn the lights back on I've been wandering here for days, disconnected, and in search for new air to breathe in

I don't think I can fix this
Don't think I could change

But that's the problem
We never speak to Him
Our closing walls have caged us in
And I can't quite remember

This was the first time I didn't say enough
This was the only time I kept it close enough

Brace yourself! Come on and Brace yourself!

They're not waking
They're not waking up
They're not waking
They're not waking

Oh, my God

Oh, my God
I hate the me that I've become, this needy useless forgetting one
Truthfully I can't be the me, the me that I've washed up to be

Don't stop breathing
The walls have just begun to spin
Just let the water calm you this time
It's all around you, just open your eyes and take a look
It will never kill you; not this time

Don't stop breathing
Just let the water calm you

Don't stop breathing
Not this time

It's all around you
It's all around you
We're surrounded for all I care

Brace yourself right now
Lights out I'm not breathing
I can't keep swimming, can't keep my head up
