They say however long you're with somebody
That it takes you half the time to get over them
Well it's not true€
Cause I'm taking forever getting over you

I gave her up so it's my own stupidity
And now I wonder why she's not with me
I'd give anything to go back to that night
Fix it all and make everything all right

I'd like to know when is this going to end
When will my heart start over again?
When will I feel the same about another girl?
When will she stop being my whole world?

Two years later I am still regretting it
Haven't moved on it was my fault ill admit
And now she's moved on she's forgotten about me
And I'm stuck here in an emotional loss spree

I'd like to know when is this going to end
When will my heart start over again?
When will I feel the same about another girl?
When will she stop being my whole world?

Cause I wanna do this, I'm not going to deny
But why does she have to be with another guy
But If I can't have her then this is my mission
To get over her but it's such a hard transition
But if others can do it then why cant I
I sit back wonder why she's, why she's with another guy
When I know that she should be with me
But here I go again I'm complaining
That I don't have her and that we should be
Instead of going after another I'm stuck here
