Look out for everything ahead don't wanna miss it
Life's too short before you know it your dead
So enjoy everyday as if it was your last
Enjoy your future forget your past

Everybody thinks about the past
When they should think about what's to come
Cause what will they have when it's all over
Cause ones it's all done theirs no more fun
No no more fun (ahhhh)
No no more fun

If you were to die tomorrow could you take it all with you?
It wouldn't be the past but the future that fills with the sorrow
Everyone you know be sad to see you go

Everybody thinks about the past
When they should think about what's to come
Cause what will they have when it's all over
Cause ones it's all done theirs no more fun
No no more fun (ahhhh)

Forget about everything that ever happened
Go back again and we'll become friends
We'll leave our differences in the past
Cause I just don't want them to ever last

Everybody thinks about the past
When they should think about what's to come
Cause what will they have when it's all over
Cause ones it's all done theirs no more fun
No no more fun (ahhhh)

So many people lose what they had
Not what they would have gotten
Cause they never went for it
Never thought about it how rotten
So many people lose what they had
Not what they would have gotten

Cause they never went for it
Never thought about it how rotten
