Today I went back to the place of our first kiss
And you know what for the first time
Didn't get thoughts of what I miss
It brought back such a beautiful memory
That nothing could ruin this moment
Nothing could take it from me

So I guess what I'm trying to say
Is I'm over you I realized today, oh
Let me know that this is finally done
So now I can move on (like you already have)

So now when I look back I don't see what I lost
I see what I had such a beautiful past
And the passion that we shared a memory ill never forget
And even though I don't have you now none of it I will regret

So I guess what I'm trying to say
Is I'm over you I realized today, oh
Let me know that this is finally done
So now I can move on (like you already have)

So let me know that this is over Cause I never saw my self wanting what I can't have I saw myself looking at what I had as a beautiful memory
And what more can I ask for Ill always have it
Ill never loose it
So I guess what I'm trying to say

So I guess what I'm trying to say
Is I'm over you I realized today, oh
Let me know that this is finally done
So now I can move on (like you already have)
Already have
Already have
So over you
So over you

So over you
So over you
So over you
So over you
So over you
So over you
