"By Chance"

Oh you, I try lovin' the best that I can
What can I do when I'm hurting, no more I can stand

Maybe by chance
I'm running away
Thought I'd let you notice
This is our dance
You run in my veins
It's too hard to stomach

Can't understand how I let you get part of my soul
I'll sing it again, in my future
Look nowhere but low
On the phone
You don't reach for the silent gun, girl

Maybe by chance
I'm running away
Thought I'd let you notice
This is our dance
You run in my veins
It's too hard to stomach

Maybe by chance
I'm running away
Thought I'd let you notice
This is our dance
You run in my veins
It's too hard to stomach
Maybe by chance
This is our dance, y'know
Maybe by chance
This is our dance
