On a lovely day
You can put away the clouds
(Right before the moonlight)
But it's okay
If you want to stay behind

Losing my mind
I just can't stand anymore
My brain's going out the door
I gotta find someone to help me
But no one really understands me
I'm losing myself
I've got a feeling I've been killed
I gotta find someone to help me
But no one really understands me

I'll have a raise
If you want to pay the price
(Right before the moonlight)
So please don't go
Cause you got your own advice

Losing my mind
I just can't stand anymore
My brain's going out the door
I gotta find someone to help me
But no one really understands me
I'm losing myself
I've got a feeling I've been killed
I gotta find someone to help me
But no one really understands me

Losing my mind
I just can't stand anymore
My brain's going out the door
I gotta find someone to help me
But no one really understands me
I'm losing myself
I've got a feeling I've been killed
I gotta find someone to help me
But no one really understands me

But no one really understands me
But no one really understands me
But no one really understands me
