I forgot how to listen
I'm a lonely condition
I forgot that a needed your love
My love

I'm a write you a letter
You can read it whenever
Just as long as you throw it away
I love saying

All that we want is to be loved
Take all we can still not enough
All that we want is human touch
Take what we can never enough

I forgot how to mention
That I need some attention
I was scared that you wanted to break
Me off

I will wait for good weather
But I'm stuck in December
Just as long as I've waited to give
I love saying

All that we want is to be loved
Take all we can still not enough
All that we want is human touch
Take what we can never enough

All we need
Is all we are
Our love is from
My broken heart

All we need
Is all we are
Our love is from
My broken heart

All that we want is to be loved

Take all we can still not enough
All that we want is human touch
Take what we can (take what we can) never enough
