Stay illogical, bet you can't think
That we fell in love, no
So stay illogical, bet you can't think
That we fell in love, no

At least I tried to help her
At least I tried to tell her
About you, about you

At least I tried to help her
At least I tried to tell her
About you, about you

Stay illogical and what a surprise
You lost your soul
I tried and fell short, and now that you're blind
You can't ignore, no

At least I tried to help her
At least I tried to tell her
About you, about you

At least I tried to help her
At least I tried to tell her
About you, about you

Right before your eyes
How do you do? How do you do?
Right before your eyes
How do you do? And how do you do?

At least I tried to help her
At least I tried to tell her
About you, about you

At least I tried to help her
At least I tried to tell her
About you, about you

At least I tried to help her
At least I tried to tell her
About you, all about you

At least I tried to help her
At least I tried to tell her
About you, all about you

At least I tried to help her
At least I tried to tell her
About you, all about you
