These are the rules today
They already went away
So I went to the stable twice
I asked for his great advice
I'll sit in my own cocoon
I'll label the stone a moon

This is love with a silhouette
This is war with a captain
This is love, 'cause it never came
This is war

I'm worried to show my face
I finally found my place
I'm feeling the need to run
You think that it's just for fun
I'll lift it before the time
I'll struggle to get in line

This is love with a silhouette
This is war with a captain
This is love, 'cause it never came
This is war
You know I say this is love with a silhouette
This is war with a captain
This is love, 'cause it never came
This is war
This is war

Feel
Faith in me
Feel

This is love with a silhouette
This is war with a captain
This is love, 'cause it never came
This is war
You know I say this is love with a silhouette
This is war with a captain
This is love, 'cause it never came
This is war

This is war

This is war

This is war

This is war

They're coming for me

Coming for me

They're coming for me

You should've doubted me, girl

You should've doubted me, girl

Alright
