You ought to know what a liar I can be?
I lay my cards on the table
I let you know everything about me
So how the fuck didn't you know?

You only saw what you wanted to see
You only heard what you wanted to hear
But just the same, just the same
What gave you the right to interfere?

What I needed to know
Or what I wanted to know
Or what I needed to know
Who made you the interloper?

What I needed to know
Or what I wanted to know
Or what I needed to know
Who made you the interloper?

You wanna know about misdirection?
You wanna know about misconception?
Well all these things, all these things
How the fuck didn't you know?

You only saw what you wanted to see
You only heard what you wanted to hear
But just the same, just the same
What gave you the right to interfere?

What I needed to know
Or what I wanted to know
Or what I needed to know
Who made you the interloper?

What I needed to know
Or what I wanted to know
Or what I needed to know
Who let you to interloper?

Interloper!

You sick, you fuck
I took you in, you turned me out
You sucked me in, I spat you out
