I've said too much again
I've pushed too hard again
I wanna stop but when
I always lose it in the end

Stupid once again
You wanna be my friend
I've pushed too hard again
I always lose it in the end

I don't know how I can let you go
How will I let you go?

Yo I keep my guards up
When it comes to the women
Tone knew that
Ever since the beginning
That's why I stay in clubs
Down in the white denim
Cause Y'all girls is poison
Peace To Mike Bivins
I can't let you go
And you know that
I can't see another man
Try'na blow that
That's critical
Love shots hurtin me
Dr. Winfield said I need therapy

Torment, Misery is Killing me physically
Why murder me legally
I loved you convincingly
So I'm a close my eyes
And just pretend
Cause word on the street's
I might lose it in the end

I cared too much again
You stared too much at him
And this must be a sin

I always lose it in the end

Just chill-out's what you said
Take a pill and go to bed
No matter how or when
Always lose it in the end

I don't know how I can let you go
How will I let you go?

Yo I do what I does
When it comes to the ladies
Cause things ain't changed
Since the early eighties
A few babies
But I'm still picking the crazy
You wanna battle in court
Like Kim and Slim Shady
I ain't having that
No I ain't having that
You just try'na get rich
Like Miramax
Force my hand girl
To let you know
Cause getting over on starks
Is Real unnatural

[CHORUS]

I don't know how I can let you go
How will I let you go?
