Feeling you in me everyday I'm searching,
Am I really you or you are really me?
Hidden here in my head here,
Every night whispering me,
I can't trust you anymore

Talking, screaming and calling me,
I just want now, silence

In me another breath, in me another breath,
In me another breath, in me

It's time to leave the rain,
I am falling, I cross the time,
With my pain,
It's time to leave the rain, I am lost,
In my head, another breath

Not a day without this failing storm,
Haunting me my head's bleeding on this choir,
I just need something to die,
I can't hear you anymore,
You push me to being mad,

In the dark I see light,
Maybe I am above

It's time to leave the rain,
I am falling, I cross the time,
With my pain,
It's time to leave the rain, I am lost,
In my head, another breath
