In my dark room just inside,
Wet of pain I close my eyes,
Feeling everyday so tired,
By the world around so sad,

When I'm falling, I wake up,
When I'm falling, I dream,

When I'm going down I see outside,
The sun is shining on my life,
Believe in you life will be fine

In my world full of illusions,
I try to trust somehow in our lives,
Always searching something more,
I know, my eyes blind miss the light around

When I'm falling, I crying,
When I'm crying, I dream

When I'm going down I see outside,
The sun is shining on my life,
Believe in you life will be fine
I know when I'm crying,
I know where's the lie

Just a sparkle of something more,
I am living in the obscure,
Just hidden in a shadow,
I am searching a cure x2

When I'm going down I see outside,
The sun is shining on my life,
Believe in you life will be fine
