Sun has left my home,
The rain has begun to fall

I'm asleep,

I'm on a burning cloud,
The rats are running all around,

It's my dream

In my dream, I'm flying, the rats are biting me,
In my dream, I'm dying, why don't you hear me?

I am swimming in my tears, I see all my life before,
I twas quite, i twas empty, off happiness and love, and of your delicate presence,
Now I see pearls of sadness crossing my skin, like knives they kill me, they kill me

Screaming is not enough; silence has captured me
now,
My body don't move anymore, I want to wake up but I can't,
Now I see pearls of sadness crossing my skin,
Like knives they kill me, Don't you know how I feel?
Losing control of my mind and my body?

In my dream, I'm flying, the rats are biting me,
In my dream, I'm dying, why don't you hear me?

I try to save myself but I see that I never will My spirit suffers even if I know that it's a dream

In my dream, I'm flying, the rats are biting me,
In my dream, I'm dying, why don't you hear me?
In my dream, I'm flying
In my dream, I'm dying
