I hear your voices
I know you're somewhere here
I know there's something under the leaves
Are you still living ?
The world so hurting you,
Ignoring how you bring the true

Long time I've tried to find a key,
Walking by the endless ways,
Long time I've tried to find the real,
Always searching for something else

Cruelty's streaming
On our stifling lives
I know the place where we could breath
Where leaves would always lick your wounds

Long time I've tried to find a key,
Walking by the endless ways,
Long time I've tried to find the real,
Always searching for something else
Long time I've tried to find a key,
Walking by the endless ways,
Long time I've tried to find the real,
Always searching for something else

I'll give you a chance to see behind
Somebody hear when alone you cry
Lost in the doubt, Your eyes bleeding
Lost in the doubt, searching, crying

I'll give you a chance to see behind
Somebody hear when alone you cry
Your eyes bleeding
Lost in the numb.
